Special Commissioner's Sale of Land

Pursuant to a decree of the Circuit Cours of Pocahortas County, West Virginia, entered at the October Term, 1922, in the chancery cause of R. C. Miller vs L. A. Simmons and others, the undersigned special com-missioners will sell at public auction to the highest bidder. on Tuesday, January 30th, 1923 at 10 o'clock a. m., at the front door of the court house of said county, the ollowing real estate situate near sartow, Greenbank District, Pocantas County, West Virginia, as follows, to wit:

1. A tract of land containing 7 1cres adjoining the lands of P. D. Yeager estate, described by metes and bounds by a deed of record in the office of the clerk of the county court of said county in deed book No- 59 as page 461, from L. A. Elmmons and wife to W. M. Simmons.

2. A tract of land containing 51 adjoining the lands of Fannie Rexrode and others, being the land described in a deed from L. A. Simmons and wife to W. M. Simmons of cord in said office in deed book No. 59 at page 462.

Terms of Sale-One third cash in hand on day of sale, and the residue in two equal payments, with interest from de of sale, due in six and twelve months respectively. the purchaser executing notes with good personal security, the title to be retained as ultimate security:

> N. C. McNelll, Andrew Price. Special Commissioners.

I, D. C. Adkison, clerk of the Circult Court of said county do certify that the above named special comquired by said decree. C. D. Adkison, Clerk

Trustee's Sale of Real and Personal Property, Moving Picture Theatre at Cass

County Court of Pocahontas County, Virginia, in trust deed book number 12 at page 58, I will proceed to sell at public auction to the high est bidder, in Marlinton, at the front oor of the court house of said coun-

TUESDAY, JANUARY 30, 1923, at 10 o'clock a. m., the following real and personal property located in the town of Cass in said county, to-wit: A tract of land known as the Cass come to it, still holds good.

of record in said clerk's office; and al-Plano, chairs and all other furniture and appliances in said theater.

Terms of Sale_CASH ANDREW PRICE, Trustee

Baxter's Garage MARLINTON W. VA. FORD Cars and Supplies FORDSON Tractors

A full line of Ford products and supplies always in stock. I. L. BAXTER, Propr.

Pay Me

is coming to me. I have too much on me now, for a while.

J. J. McNellan Marlinton, W. Va.,

Baby Chicks

And hatching eggs, from heavy egg producers, get your order in early and be sure of chicks or eggs on date destred.

Oak Crest Poultry Farm Mill Point, W. Va.,

For Sale

F. O. B. Clover Lick.

we line up with the best raw fur exporters and manufacturers that call be found. That is why we are able to buy from so many fur shippers. They can get a better grade and get more tion of park. It has many mountains which tower thousands of feet above the average elevation. Look at your map and you will find that tention was the Frying Pan. It is the water sheds in all directions from 18 feet across and frying and stewing are the same of the same can get a better grade and get more the water sheds in all differ their fur by selling to us. We are this section of country. wanting large quantities of furs. We there or Gardner; Western, or Yel-the Park, namely Norris, Lower and get it honest. We do not make 16 grades in order to get you out of your fur you get a lot of fur on hands either write us or bring it to us. Wewill cer skinning and stretching their fur and not to be misled by wild cat prices.

Very Respectfully L. D. Sharp & Son's

POR SALE-38 acres of land and good 8 roym house for sale. All necessary outbuildings including barn etc. On Class A read 2 miles from Frost on Dunmore road.

MITCHELL SHARP.

15,000 MILE JOURNEY TOURING THE UNITED STATES FROM OCEAN TO OCEAN BY AUTO

BY DAVIS L. BARLOW (Continued from last week)

On the 13th we motored from Miles City to Pompeys Pillar, Mont. This drive was slong the Yellow River all the way except in a few places the road wound back into the hills where there were many steep grades, and should your engine and grades, and should your engine and brakes give way at the same time it would be good by here and good morning some where else. We passed today many irrigated districts an well as some high yellow sand stone chilfs from which the river receives its name to color from the deepest to the faint to come for a time a mud gever. A from which the river receives its name ings quite early and remained until various sections of our country. of Night. Later I shall give you their opinions, not from their own words but from their actions which I am told speak louder than words

Billings with its more than 20,000 age this country was virtually un-known to the civilized world; today thousands of dollars the tax payers it is the distributing point for a large are pouring into the schools of the scopes of country and is one of the country and learn to calculate Longi missioners have executed bouds as re. largest inland wool markets in the tude and Time so as to be able to Springtime, Reedpoint, Big Timber, and Hot Springs. Our route was geography you ought to be able to along the Yellowstone all the way except between Springtime and Reed minute the moon will appear over point the trail carried us back into Mt. Everts.

Pursuant to authority vested in me as trustee in a deed of trust dated on the 27th day of April, 1921, executed by C. E. Carpenter to Andrew Price, Trustee, to secure the Bank of Marlinton in the payment of a note of $2000.00, which deed of trust is of record in the office of the Clerk of the County Court of Pecahiontas County. reverential fear—mostly fear—for it springs have at some period carried looked as if though we would have to the earth and all soluable matter the hundreds of miles of rough road low. Others claim they are the work old Majestic snowcap to our right and silent as to the time of the next earth the old axiom: Never cross a bridge quake we hurried through Silver

John S. Hannah and wife to said C. upon the Rockies I thought I saw an ged pass between two mountains. Perce Indians who were led by Chief E. Carpenter, dated November 13, 1920 opportunity for a teacher to demon- The sides of the rugged walls rise Joseph. We are also near the junc strate to a class the shade of differso all the furnishings of said building erence and the real meaning of such and are covered with a golden moss which together form the Madison, consisting of a Dennett-Bretz Player terms as the sublime, the grand, the made of the branches of feet above road tion of Gibbon and Firehole Rivers and are covered with a golden moss which together form the Madison, terms as the sublime, the grand, the which suggest the name-Golden one of the branches of the Missouri, majestic, etc.

Yellowstone National Park we remained three days. Here in a beau-tiful auto park shaded by stately trees of the United States. I have no Basin and surrounded by seven snow data as to the number of cars which park here during a single season, but 9,900 feet, and the highest Electric would say 5,000 would be a low estimate. I have somewhere read that it attracts lightning during storms. 2443 cars carrying 9772 tourists were parked at Billings, Montana, during the season of 1920, and Livingston being 130 miles nearer the National Park entrance we would be safe in saying that more than double this number stop in her tourists' park. The Billings report further said of the thousands of people who stopped in her park not a single robbery was It is necessary that I collect what reported or a single arrest made for this section Obsidian Cliff was neuany misbehavior. Is not this remy books. I have accommodated too markable? Some day I hope to give many people in extending credit. The you an account of the character, soaccomodation is expected to come to berness and honesty of thousands and thousands of tourists I have met.

In Livingston the site of the Lewis and Clark camp is marked by a granite monument. This was a favorite camping place for trappers and hunters in the real pioneer days.

Tuesday morning July 19th we be-gan our journey of 56 miles over a scenic but rough trail up the Yellowstone River to Gardner, the northern lowstone; Eastern, or Cody; Southern Upper. Norris Basin is near twenty-or Snake River. but aim to grade honestly and as fair As before stated we entered at and it is the first one on our road. as the market will permit. So when Gardner and spent our first evening Here are quite a number of hot bollwhich is about five miles from the I do not propose to annoy you with entrance gate. Here being told that any geological or scientific reason why tainly appreciate your patronage again this season. And we will advise the trappers to take special care in the trappers to take special care in some distance below camp. I, after volcanic nature of this region. We supper, walked out to see them eat. have no doubt that these great moun-When nearing the feeding place, I tains are built on material which at for some cause, suddenly developed a one time was far below the surface of case of "cold feet" and began to hike back to camp. While hurryfng along dian Cliff and the colored sands in Dunmore, W. Va beard S B Mo. r. of Edray, sing:

"Oh, the West Virginia hills! How majestle and how grand,

With their summits bathed in glory Like our Prince Emmanuel's Land. But had he been with me and gazed upon Mt. Everets bathed in the glo-rious moonlight, he would have anall together let us sing, 'The Haif has never yet been told.' Stience! Look to the west and be from a thousand mirrors. You will have a feeling more sublime in its character than can be produced by music, as your soul feasts upon the beauties. The next morning we reached Bill-gray, etc. and all colors blended and gray, etc. and all colors blended and lesson might be learned from Consoftened by a veil of steam as it rises gress Pool. I think it is well named. men thought of the climate of the than it is again opened by the Queen feet high or more. Mud geyser at

I made a close examination of the stone River and is surrounded by an which he can learn the time the extensive irrigated and dry farming time the moon fulls and how long he out west" and only forty short years the boys and girls of Pocahontas to figure to the minute the time the At an early hour on a beautiful moon will rise over a given meridian. morning we left Billings headed for The calculations of Hagerstown Al-Livingston by the way of Laurel, manack are based on Longitude 75 degrees West. From this' and your

At the Silver Gate and the "Hoo-Just after rounding the first turn doo's" we are seven and a fraction out of Billings we looked to the West miles from and 1,875 feet higher than cross it if we drove much further. from under the rocks causing them This did not look inviting and I knew to cave in, filling the opening be-back of us. What were we to do? of a violent earthquake and have Well, we will anyway drive to base of been thrown down from a higher elmountain, so on we went. In the evation. Not knowing but what evening we bore away from and left this is true and our Almanack being (in this case mountain) until you Gate which is so named because of way to the northern entrance to the leaps about seventy feet and is lost Missouri that the time would come when the news was circulated that beneath the rocks of the canyon.

capped peaks—the lowest of which is drink it dry. Peak, (11,155 feet) so named because Obsidian Cliff is a cliff of hard black volcanic glass which rises 250 feet above the road. I am told that the road through here was constructed by building fires on the blocks of glass and then shattering the blocks is throwing on water. The road at thy point is built of glass and is probably the only glass road in the world. In the days before the white man knew tral ground to all Rocky Mountain

Indians and was often visited by them. The material here made fine arrow-heads and other instruments. I shall not soon forget my visit to ing from its very top. But now it is harbinget of spring.

doing a great business in the way of steaming, puffing, roaring, forcing for everyone is familiar with them. YELLOWSTOE NATIONAL PARK ing the timber. I have an excellent away as if it had to. five miles from the Gardner entrance

I noticed that the moon with more than usual splendor was rising over Mt. Everts— a huge rough mountain to the east. In the good old days when life was in its dream I have beard S B Moor, of Edray, sing:

dian Chil and the colored sands in the walls of the Grand Canyon suggest the make up of this country even to an unscientific eye. When on some of these mountain tops looking at distant snow capped peaks and deep canyons I could not help but nagine that at the creation of this cente park, there was much heavy close to the surface. The graction is fully explained in the books. but still we are struck will only an opening in the rocks from which steam escaped and its roaring could be heard for miles. Some come for a time a mud geyser.

We shall mention but a few of th the next day. Here we met some of our Florida friends, who reported that they and many others of my acquaintance just ahead were on their way to California to spend the winter I made up my mind to tag along and learn what these retired business men thought of the climate of the learn the content of the climate tracted my attention very much. I had not before seen mud boiling like light, but the light from the various had I at the time knows that it some olors is quite painful to the eye and times puts on its Sunday clothes and would advise a visitor to take with erupts with great violence, frequently throwing mud sixty feet high, would not have ventured so near. If old "Mud" had shown her power section of country. We eastern people look upon it today as a city. "way out west" and only forty short years the boys and girls of Pocahontas to "Keep to the board walk, the crust of the earth here is unsafe to walk upon," and today I might have been writing about conditions as found in the interior of the earth and my folks Thou hast left us and we bid thee who warned me time and again to use care, would have been without the comforting influence of a great

> We were loath to leave the aweinspiring sights of other geysers, but there are other wonders ahead.

> Three miles from Norris Basin and we are in Elk Park, a beautiful valley surrounded by heavily timbered mountains. Two miles further and near the road is Beryl Spring which is quite beautiful and the hottest one in the park, while three miles further is Iron Spring which is possibly the coldest. The next object of interest is Gibbon Falls where the water tumbles down in a torrent from a height of eighty feet.

We were soon at Madison Junction where the road from the western entrance joins the loop highway which is the one we followed. Near by this point is National Park Mountain; visit here, the discoverers of this part formulated plans for the establishment of this great play ground.

While we had covered but forty some miles so far, yet we had seen the great blocks of limestone rising enough for one day. We stopped on the bank of Nez Perce creek which is But humbly submissive for the Lord Wheatre Property, and also known as for number 9 of the Clayton Addition to the Town of Cass, being the same property described in a deed from the Parking for the first time property described in a deed from the Parking for the first time of the property described in a deed from the Parking for the first time of the property described in a deed from the Parking for the first time of the property described in a deed from the Parking for the first time of the property described in a deed from the Parking for one day. We stopped on the property described in a deed from the Parking for one day. We stopped on the property described in a deed from the parking for one day. We stopped on the property described in a deed from the parking for one day. We stopped on the parking for one day. many hundreds of feet above road tion of Gibbon and Firehole Rivers Gate. At the head of this pass or and little did I dream when I was a After leaving the canyon the road very headwaters. And I expect yet burned to death in their home which suddenly leads into a beautiful moun- to follow one of these streams to a was destroyed by fire early in the we found tourists from every section tain prairie known as Swan Lake point where it is so small that on a morning.

After all arrangements had been that such things drive me to cover cheat Mountain, Getsysburg and and here at this place because of the other places. howling coyotes and wolves as well as fear of the grizzly bears I slept but moved to Pendletontcounty and it little over ten hours.

(To be continued)

THE BLUE BIRD I shall not soon forget my visit to Roaring Mountain. I could see from dead timber on its sides that it had not been engaged many years in its present accupation, and later learned that about twenty years ago that the only evidence of its internal heat was that a little steam could be seen issuand everywhere is halled as a living at Hightown, Va.

The blue bird, always tries to build of their son, M. F. Rader and near its nest in some kind of cavity or his home so that they could be better insects than most any other bird. they were living we have ever as They eat insects and worms that do much harm to our fields, our fruit, vegetables, lawns and cultivated grounds. They eat grasshoppers, beetles, wasps, ants, cutworms, caterpillars, crickets and many other harmful insects. Field observation and laboratory analysis of the food-fully justify the high esteem in which the bird is held, and there is not the slightest excuse for persecuting it of withdrawing from it the smallest degree of protection.

Clarence May. Beard, W. Va

. We wish to take this means to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness shown during our bereavement caused by the death of our father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. David Rater.

Their Children.

LIST OF REALESTATE

Sold in the County of Pocahoritas in the month of December, 1922, for the non-payment of taxes due thereon for the year 1920, and purchased by individuals:

ol the al	NAME OF PERSON CHARGED WITH TAXES	Local Description of Land	Quantity land	Quantity land sold	NAME OF PUR- CHASER	whose amthaid by purchaser
is	EDRAY DISTRICT
Mas mig	Hamrick, Oda McDowell, Fenton Sharp, Clifford and others Tibbs, Hiland R. Watts, J. M., Trustee	lot 10 Gloverlick 54 Indian Draft 124 a Stony Creek 2 80 part 162 lot 9, Riverside	lot 51 124 2:80 lot	lot 51 124 2.80	U. S. Grimes Uriah Bird G. W. Sharp Ben Truss L. F. Cutlip	6 5 97 6 59 51 92 2 61 3 91
y		GREENBAN	DIST	RICT
e A n-1.	Robinson, Emma W & Walls Tallman, W. B. same same	sce bl 3, lot 14 82 a Back Alle 15 a same 60 a same	lot 82 15 60	lot 82 15 60	I lmer Rurner L. M. McClintic same Cos Adkison	8.06 17.60 3.56 7.48
領	E 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	HUNTERSVII	LE DIS	STRICT
h th a	Alderman, Maggie E Alderman, W. C. Moore, Edwin J.	60 a N Fork Anthony Cr 60 a hd Cummings Creek 18a near Rimel	60 60 18	. 60 00 18	C. O. Wade C. W. Alderman J. C. Alderman	15.09 5.38 2.68
d		LITTLE LEV	ELS DIS	STRICT .
I	McClure, Fannie	8a Stephen Hole Run	8-	8	r. A. Gladwell	19.37

The owner of any realestate above described and sold, his heirs or assigns, or any person having the right to charge such real estate for a debt, may redeem the same by paying to the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, within one year from the sale thereof, the amount specified in the last column of the above table, and such additional taxes thereon as may have been paid by the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, with interest on said purchase money and taxes at the rate of twelve percentum per annum, from the time the same may have been so paid.

Given under my hand this 11th day of December, 1922. by C. C. Clendenen, Deputy B. B BEARD, Sheriff of Pocahontas County, W. Va.

IN MEMORY

Sacred to the memory of Mrs Julia Gay Moore.

And from thy low tomb turn to life's task anew: All around we miss thee, thy presence was blesse But it is well, and thou art at rest!

I think of the time that was Sunday School hour, bench full of children and each i fine flower, I hear Julia's sweet voice responsively To the truths of the Bible a link unto heaven.

Years roll to young womanhood, church of her choice, The good work goes on in her own teaching voice.

And when aught is presented for the uplift of man, They know the kind spirit, we will do what we can.

upon which fifty-one years before our Skies of earth-darken for sorrow is here. of the park before their camp fires The sighs of a mother and her silent The child of her love > alway. And night coming on repeats the sad

> God hath spoken, never be broken

ANOTHER CIVIL WAR VETERAN GONE

Our community was shocked beyond when I would spend a night on its Mr. and Mrs. David Bader had been hot summer day a single ox could Mr. Rader was born in Rockingham County, Va., November 16, 1839. When the Civil war broke out made for the night and supper over, he enlisted in the Union army and I started out to explore, but I could took part in some of the greatest not look upon the towering hills battles of the war. The writer has without thinking of bears and other wild animals. It is indeed strange about his experiences at Beverly,

In the meantime his parents had was here soon after the war that he married Miss Mahulda McQuain. To this happy union there were born twelve children six boys and six girls. The blue bird is one of the most familar and welcome of our feathered visitors, it is a common inhabitant of all the States east of the Rocky of all the States east of the Rocky Maggie McKee, Harrisburg, Pa., Mountain from the Gulf of Mexico to M. F. Bader. Arbovale, Lucy Wilfong

Mr. Rader came to this county about thirty eight years ago and entrance to the National Yellowstone Park In the evening we passed under the imposing lava arch and were in the world's greatest sight seeing in the world's greatest sight seeing in the world's greatest sight seeing lava arch and were in the world's greatest sight seeing lava arch and were milky sulphur water which runs down its side, collecting in pools at belong to the thrush family and their song is a continued warble.

Dought stain law bought stain law belong to everyone is familiar with the same in length, as the barn swallow. They belong to the thrush family and their song is a continued warble. In area the is about three and one half times that of Pocahontas county. It is located in north western Wyoning and encroaches slightly upon ming and encroaches slightly upon montain and Idain.—If you wish to gain some idea of its elevation, go to foot pole, climb to its top and you will still be below the average elevation. Look

The blue bird, always tries to build its nest in some kind of cavity or crevice in a post or tree, or, builds in houses put out for them. The nest is made up of grass, fixy, horse half times that of Pocahontas county. It is located in north western Wyoning and encroaches slightly upon ming and encroaches slightly upon montain to the post of them. The nest of the business of the this and from the quiet happy lives surance that they were prepared to go. The funeral was conducted by Rey. Harris after which the remains were laid to rest in the Grogg Burying ground They were excellent people and will be grately missed in the neighborhood but God's will be A Friend.

Coal Orders

Must be in Saturday by moon for selivery that day. All orders received Saturday afternoon will be delive-rd Monday.

Wise Herold

We handle Grit, Oyster Shells, Charcoal, Chick Food,

Marlinton Poultry Yard Marlinton, W. Va.

POULTRY-BUTTER EGGS

are selling remarkably high on our market to-lay. We fully expeet those prices to continue through January and February. Why are we so confident of this? Because of limited quantity of Produce available for shipment, country roads in bad condition and the Ability of Frank Helierick & Co. to sell your Produce. Ship us your Poultry, Butter and Eggs through-out the winter and each shipment will be placed at the very top of the Best market in the country. .

Fishik Hellerick & Co Philadolphia, Pa

SUCCESSFUL OIL COMPANY

the belief that the "Oil Game" has dwelling house is nearing completpassed and that the oil business is ion. here to stay. Although some few investors have made money by speculation in wildcat oll stocks and leases, the greatest profits in ,this in-At Livingston which is the gate- canyon is Rustic Fall. The water school boy studying the course of the expression on New Year's morning dustry have been made by well organized, capably managed oil en terprises whose affairs have been conducted under the direction of men of proven executive ability and practical experience in the oil business. One oil producing enterprise which appears to be operating along these lines and one which we believe to possess unusual possibilities is the Dale Oil & Gas Company of Pitteburgh. This is a big, well organized come one come all and let us have a and capably managed oil enterprise organized in April, 1922, for the purshown. pose of consolidation oil producing properties in proven fields along the sick list.

most efficient lines. This company is acquiring some 3,100 acres of proven oil and gas property in Washington and Morgan Counties, Ohio 257 acres in Rosne County, and 800 acres in Tyler County, West Virginia. On these properties there are already seventeen wells with a daily production of from 35 to 40 barrels per day (Pennsylvania Crude) and five wells producing approximately eleven million feet of into c gas per day of which, pending the laying of additional pipe lines, only about two million feet per day is being marketed. The company also owns a gasoline plant making about with a fractured ankle. 200 gallons of gasoline per day.

From the present production the company is earning approximately $325 per day or $10,000 per month which amount should be substantially incressed in the near future with the bringing in of new wells and the further develops ent of the company's

Apples for Sale 500 bushels of apples, at 75c a bushel at farm or deliverediat Mariinton

for a little more. Marlinton, W. Va

My resident in the lower of Green ank, W. Va. containing one acre, Bank, W. Va. containing one acre, 9 room house with porches and pantry, well furnished for a comfortable dwelling with in the house. Out buildings callar, grainery, wood house combined with gaod barn all in first clars condition, or I will sell with the house furnished, term made good Reason for selling lost my wife and am going to broke up housekeeping. High school and two churches in sight on class A road. High school and aight, on class A road.

HILLSBORO

Many of the most successful oil going on in our town in the Kinnison operators of the country are firm in addition W W. Kinnison fine large

Work on the large School building has been discontinued until spring. Mr. and Mrs. Will Gum were called to Marlinton Saturday by the death of Mr. Gums brother Phill.

We learn of the serious illness of Mrs. Peter Hill of usar Lobelta, she is an aged lady and has suffered a stroke of paraveis.

Dr. Sandy Auldridge is able to be out again we are glad to say.

Miss Maryola Anderson and sister attended Sunday School here Sunday. We have interesting 8 inday School.

Miss Margaret LaRue is on the George F. Clark has returned from Richmond where he accompanied his Grandson George Thomas Clark. Our friend N. M. McCoy is preparing to put up a general store in our town.

Miss Eula Hill who is teaching at Riverside spent Saturday and Sunday

Robert LaRue of Spice Run moved into our town last week. We welcome Miss Robison returned to resume her place as teacher in the high school this week, she had been suffering Mrs. I. B. Shrader and little daughter Pauline were at Marlinton last week having dental work done. Mr Cam Adkison and family are in Florida for the winter and so well do they like it there that Mr. Adkison has his house and lot here in town

We have just heard that our friend Dr. J. W. R. Smith is going to leave our town and com unity, this is one thing we are very sorry to learn, for we will not only lose a good faithful Dr. always ready and speedy to attend the sick but a good man in courch work, community work and a general good citizen. We feel sure that in our loss of such a man some other community will gain such a citizen that they will not want to give up. We hope for his success wherever he may go.

Feed For Sale

I have five or six good hay stacks which I will sell and feed on place or will feed stock by the month, wont sell and have feed hauled off the place, if interested call or write me at Frost. W. Va., I am also closing out mamy lines in Merchangise such as rubber ware "Ball Band" in many styles, heavy underwear, heavy top shirts. Mackanaws, coats, "Richs Line & etc. heavy pants in different brands, socks, and many other wearing apparels at sacrifice prices for cash. Call and see.

Earnest G. Sharp

6 thoroughbred Poland China pi registry papers and $10.00 with pap-Marlinton, W. Vs.